

Homecourt Advantage

After a knockout season, the New York Flyers are poised for the NBA playoffs, and the players wives and girlfriends are set to add their own spin to the proceedings. Theres Casey, married to the Flyers top player, who has it all including doubts about her mans fidelity; her best friend Remy, a musical superstar whose boyfriend has been distant lately; and Lorraine, a nurse, who deals with her own personal demons while her religious husband deplores his teammates boozing, drugging, and womanizing. As the media waits to pick up the latest indiscretion to turn into tabloid headlines the Flyers women support one another as they share a common bond--maintaining a relationship as their private moments are paraded in front of an eager and unforgiving world.
