Some friendships are meant to last forever. Nicknamed the four musketeers since they met freshman year of college, Anna, Kat, Erin and Barbaras friendship spans over fifteen years. Known as the tough one, Annas only dream was to escape her mothers kitchen by setting the fashion world on fire. An ambitious executive for one of New Yorks oldest department stores and engaged to an up-and-coming politician from an affluent old school family, her lifes dream seems to be coming true until Barbara and her husband are in a car crash sending Annas world into a tailspin. When Anna makes a deathbed promise to protect Barbaras daughter, with the help of her friends and the babys handsome godfather, Anna faces her greatest challenges. Learning how to care for a baby who cant stand her is only the beginning.
