

My Fair Maggy (Silhouette Romance)

Dear Aunt Millie I can give good advice to everyone else, so why cant I solve my own problems? Im really excited about taking over this column, but I cant figure out what to do about your nephew. Griffin makes my toes curl and I forget what Im saying around himnot a good thing for a writer. Even worse, Im just a simple girl from the wrong part of town, and hes a wealthy, sophisticated man who thinks I might be after your money. How can I make Griffin accept me for who I really am? Sincerely, Confused in Chicago (aka Maggy Gallagher)
