

Vanished

Tommy has everything a boy could wish for - loving parents, lots of friends, regular access to all his favourite foods . . . until a terrible accident leaves him with scars on his face. Taunted by his schoolmates, Tommy runs away from home, but as he makes his way up a steep hill, he trips and falls, nearly succumbing to the frigid night air. He is discovered by a strange community of beings, living deep inside the earth. Intrigued by his facial scars and moved by his deteriorating physical condition, they take him to their underground facility. Tommy as disappeared without a trace. Through their friendship, Tommy slowly learns to ignore his physical appearance and to reclaim his life. But the search for the missing Tommy leads to a disastrous confrontation for his new friends and their future on earth, leading to a tense, thrilling stand-off. A compelling and exciting read from start to finish, Vanished will entertain, excite and inspire.
