

Visions Beyond the Veil

This outstanding book tells the story of a group of children - mostly street beggars and orphans - living in the Adullam Rescue Mission in Yunan Province, China, under the care of missionaries H. A. Baker and his wife. These children experience an immense and incredible outpouring of the Holy Spirit - so great that they literally experience heaven through visions, were aware of the presence of angels, and were able to describe in great detail what they saw. The result of these intense experiences of God was a fervent passion for worship, the Word of God and prayer. This thought-provoking and faith-lifting book will challenge you to a deeper and more intimate walk with God.
